FOREWORD

A COMPLETE COMPILATION of living descendants of Henry and Joan Comly has not been attempted. Major corrections and additions have been recorded where they have been found. A number of branches of the family, not previously identified, have been located and followed out with the assistance of newly located members of the individual branches. Some of these have gone back as far as the year 1780 for the Comly Genealogy connections.

Mrs. Mary A. Peale Johnson of Los Angeles, Calif., has supplied over ten pages of descendants of (5-126)David Comly who was born 1775. There was question as to the spelling of the name of David's wife, Sarah Loder, until a sampler, made by her, was found in the possession of Mrs. Gertrude Van Roden, then of Merion, Pa. It was inscribed: "Sarah Loder, her work, in her twelf year, 1789."

Mrs. Arthur H. Pratt, of Kennett Square, Pa., supplied data on a long list of descendants of (6-79)Sarah Gilbert (born 1787) and Henry Bushong, her husband.

Joseph B. Marshall, of Wilmette, Ill., found that his ancestor, (6-440)Ann Comly Price (born 1806) and Joshua Jessop, her husband, were credited with seven children who were really their grand-children. Joseph Marshall sent us a complete list of descendants of all seven.

Mrs. Edwin E. Peake, of Philadelphia, Pa., gave data which led to the identification of the descendants of (6-191)Rebecca Comly (born 1790) and her husband, Isaac Vansant.

(9-226)Gilbert Mather, of Philadelphia, Pa., son of (8-145)Charles E. Mather, wrote us that "he did not die at age of 15 years as stated." He sent corrected data on his branch including his own children and grand-children.

We regret that we have been unable to contact all of the living descendants to learn of the current births, deaths and marriages but hope that the information given herewith may be of interest.

G. NORWOOD COMLY.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS

P. 5. (1)HENRY COMLY. Although we know that Henry Comly came to America in 1682 (or possibly 1683) his name has not been found in the passenger lists of the ships coming from England in those years.

Albert Cook Myers, of Moylan, Pa., supplies the following (8-23-1944) which he believes proves that Henry came over in the "Samuel and Mary".

From Arrival MS. vellum Loading List for Bristol: "1683, September (7 Mo.) 15. The Ship "Samuel and Mary," of Bristol, for Pennsylvania. Loading at Bristol, for Henry Cumley, 8 chests, 4 boxes, two packs of old household goods and beding and wearing apparel for his own and ffamileys use."

"1683, November (9 mo.) 29th, William Penn in a letter of this date said: "The Samuel and Mary", etc., came well with theire passengers."

But Henry Comly's name is not found in the "Samuel and Mary" passenger list and there is strong evidence that he arrived before 9-29-1683, and that he was having his household goods shipped over to him at the time of the marriage in England of his daughter Mary.

Page 8, "Comly Family in America" quotes Penna. Archives, 2nd Series, Vol. XIX, p. 311:

"... the said Henry..... by an instrument under his hand and Seal dated 6th 1st mo., 1683, granted the said 200 acres (which were then located) to Thos. Marl of Philadelphia."

Also: Resurvey Bk. D. 71, pp. 114, 115.—Harrisburg:

"Henry Comly asked Wm. Penn to let him have part of the 500 acres in Phila. County. Penn ordered 200 A. of land laid out in s'd County, 26th 9^{ber} 1683. ....

P.S.—The BEARER earnestly desires to have this made his whole 500 A."

P. 31. (4-3)MARY COMLY and William Pennington had issue: Thomas and Gill Pennington, Merab Wood, wife of William Wood, Agnes Vankirk, wife of Barnet Vankirk. See Bucks Co. Deed Book #30, p. 58.

P. 32. (4-16)GEORGE RANDALL, JR., was born Oct. 18, 1737.

P. 32. (3-3)HENRY COMLY. Add to Note #3: John Gilbert came from Cornwall, Eng., see "Captivity of Benjamin Gilbert and Family," Cruikshank.

P. 32. (3-2)MARY COMLY. For additional note see under (3-8) Agnes Comly, p. 37.

P. 33. (4-22)JOSEPH COMLY. Change "Eleanor Busby" to "Eleanor Buzby."

P. 33. (4-30)GRACE COMLY. Change "Samuel Conrad" to "Samuel Conard."

P. 34. (3-5)JOHN COMLY. Add to note #7: Hannah Comly and her daughter Susanna carried a certificate from Northern Districts, Phila., to Abington Meeting, 8-25-1777.

P. 34. (3-5)JOHN COMLY, married Hannah Mason.
P. 36. (3-6)JOSEPH COMLY, married Elizabeth Mason.
P. 36. (3-7)WALTER COMLY, married Susanna Mason.

These three brothers married Mason sisters who are reported in the Comly Genealogy to have been daughters of "Benjamin Mason, of Fairhill" as stated in "History of Byberry and Moreland." But it seems much more probable that they were daughters of Richard and sisters of Benjamin, as indicated in records of Gilbert Cope and Alfred Justice, in the Genealogical Society of Penna., Phila., as follows:

JOHN MASON, tanner, wife and family, brought a certificate dated 2-27-1682 from Farringdon, Friends Meeting, Berkshire, Eng., to Philadelphia Monthly Meeting. John died intestate in 1683 and Philadelphia Quarterly Meeting Minutes of 7-4-1683 discuss the disposition of "Widow Mason's children Richard, Robert and John, the eldest."

RICHARD MASON, son of John and Mary, married ABIGAIL SEARY OR SERRY, lived in Philadelphia and died 1714. His will mentions wife Abigail, sons Thomas, John, Benjamin, Abraham, and daughters Sarah, Mary, Hannah, Elizabeth and Susanna.

Gilbert Cope says that he believes that the three daughters above: Hannah, b. 3-21-1710, Elizabeth, b. 2-15-1712, and Susanna, b. 7-17-1714, were the wives of the three Comly brothers.

P. 35. (3-6)JOSEPH COMLY. Fifth line from bottom. Change "1744" to "1774."

P. 36. (4-43)AGNES COMLY is called "Ann" in some records.

P. 37. (3-8)AGNES COMLY'S husband, Nicholas Randall, and also George Randall, husband of (3-2)Mary Comly, (see p. 32) were probably sons of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Dracoate) Randall of Byberry, not Long Island.

Ralph Dracoate, of Bucks Co., Pa., Yeoman, will recorded in Phila. Bk. C., p. 292, signed Aug. 26, 1710, pr. Jan. 3, 1711, mentions Elizabeth Randall when she comes of age,

P. 37. Nicholas Randall is a witness and later appointed executor. See Alfred R. Justice records, Hist. Soc. of Pa.

RICHARD AND (4-67)RACHEL (COMLY) HOOKER
furnished by Dr. Morris T. Mann of Rochester, N.Y.

P. 38. (4-67)RACHEL COMLY (spelled "Comely" on tombstone) daughter of (3-9)James and Mary (Paul) Comly, was born in Baltimore Co., Md., Apr. 1, 1750, died 7-23-1809, married Richard Hooker, born in Maryland 8-3-1730, died (see Gunpowder Mtg. Records Bk. 123, p. 13) 2-10-1801, near Cohocton, Steuben Co., N.Y., son of Samuel. Their tombstones have been located in Naples, Yates Co., N.Y.

Richard Hooker, a birthright Quaker, was fifth in descent from Thomas Hooker who came to Maryland in 1653 from Virginia where he was a resident in 1624. Richard owned a 900 acre plantation and 100 slaves in Baltimore Co., Md., but in 1791 he sold his land, freed his slaves, and with wife, seven daughters, four of his five sons and a man and woman servant, started for the Genesee Country in Western New York. According to his son Thomas he had two good four horse teams and a half bushel of gold and silver coins with him. But the weather turned cold and he failed to find sufficient food for the horses so he "holed in" near the present town of Cohocton, Steuben Co., 20 miles from Painted Post, and built the first log house in the neighborhood. The spot is now identified as "Wing Waite" Farm. Richard and Rachel Hooker had issue (in part):

(5b-1)Richard, Jr., b. 1771 in Maryland, died 1832 in Steuben Co., N.Y., having come with his father in 1791, married Peedee (Watkins) Metcalf, widow, and had: Fisher, Rachel, Martha, Samuel and

P. 44. (4-23)JONATHAN COMLY, "Shopkeeper," is the only Comly name in the 1785 Philadelphia Directory and probably is this Jonathan although he is said to have gone to Phila. in 1788. The name only appears for a few years.

P. 49. (4-34)ABRAHAM COMLY is stated to have died 1793 but it should probably be 1763 as a monthly meeting minute states that "5-1-1764 Ann Comly, widow of Abraham, and children Mary, Benjamin and John carried certificate from Falls Meeting to Philadelphia."

P. 49. (5-99)ISAAC PARRY. Change: "Ruth Conrad" to: "Ruth Conard."

Laurel Hill Cemetery, Phila., Records show that in unmarked graves, Sec. 78-3, were buried:

"Sarah Comly, buried 3-21-1856, aged 78 years."

And in same lot:

P. 52. "Matilda Comly, buried 3-16-1864, aged 61."

Mrs. Gertrude Van Roden has a sampler made by: "Sarah Loder, her work, in her twelf year—1789."

David and Sarah Comly had issue:
(6a-1)Richard Hellings, b. 2-1-1815, m. Mary Ann Cline.

(6a-3)HARRIET COMLY, daughter of (5-126)David and Sarah, was born 1815 (about), died 6-29-1884, "aged 69 years," married 1832, ROBERT CORNELIUS, born 3-1-1809, died 8-10-1893, son of Christian Cornelius of Amsterdam, Holland, and Sarah Soder, according to the Cornelius Genealogy, but Henry R. Cornelius, of Pittsburgh, says it should be "Loder." Henry might have confused the names, but if the latter is correct it is most remarkable that both David Comly and Christian Cornelius should have married women with the same name. That they were both "Sarah" cannot be questioned for Christian and his wife are also buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery. His stone reads: "Christian Cornelius died April 2, 1852, aged 69 years." Hers: "Sarah, wife of Christian Cornelius, died Jan. 27, 1867, aged 94 years."

Many of the above names will be found in the account of (5-126)David Comly, given by Mrs. Mary A. Peale Johnson, also under Page 52. And on pages 50 and 52 of the Comly Genealogy many of these names will be found. However the Morris Genealogy shows no Comly marriages with either Perot or Morris.

P. 53. (4-61)NICHOLAS RANDALL, JR., married 9-24-1777.

P. 55. (4-63)JAMES COMLY was apparently disowned by Gunpowder Mo. Mtg. 8-28-1765 for being "married by a paid teacher." This must have been his first marriage. Nothing has been found in later minutes to show that he expressed regret and "condemed his actions" but in the minutes of 5-31-1788 and 8-30-1788 James Comly "produced testimony condemning his outgoing in marriage, being married by a paid minister." It is believed that this was his second marriage (to Jane Pattridge) and that some time before this date he must have been reinstated.

P. 55. In the Gunpowder minutes of 8-24-1768 is a complaint against Benjamin Price and David Comly for being guilty of dancing.

P. 56. (5-164 and 166)MARY and CHARITY COMLY, daughters of James ask Gunpowder Meeting 8-30-1758 to take them into membership. Granted.

P. 57. (4-66)JOHN COMLY. According to the Comly Genealogy he married Hannah Vaughn, born 1756, in 1772. Gunpowder Meeting minutes of 1-27-1776 complain that "he went out in marriage with a young woman of a different profession from us" and was disowned 3-30-1776. It is much more likely that the marriage was 1775 than 1772. Their first child was born 1776.

P. 58. (4-66)JOHN COMLY. Plymouth-Smithfield Meeting Jefferson Co., Ohio, minutes of 6-17-1815, p. 469, "John Comly is reinstated on consent from Gunpowder Mtg."

P. 59. (4-71)ISAAC COMLY, JR., according to "History of Byberry and Moreland" was born ninth month but Joseph Comly (see p. 1035) and John Comly, sons of Isaac, say seventh month. Isaace Comly died 8-4-1822. John Comly's MSS account of the Family says 8-3-1822, but Byberry Meeting records, Poulson's American Daily Advertiser and Joseph Comly (see p. 1035) all say 8-4-1822.

P. 60. (4-74)PHEBE CADWALADER'S father-in-law-, Robert Iredell, was son of Thomas and was born 1-4-1721, died 7-5-1799; his wife, Hannah Lukens, was daughter of Peter Lukens, son of Lohn Lukens, the immigrant.

P. 61. (4-75)BENJAMIN CADWALADER. Note #38 is entirely incorrect. It should read: William Bradfield's parents were John and Jane. Hannah Pennington was daughter of Daniel (1694-1782) and Elizabeth (Michener) Pennington; granddaughter of William and Margaret (Hall) Pennington; great-granddaughter of Paul and Anne (Simpson) Pennington. Margaret Hall was daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Addison) Hall. The above are all of Lancashire, Eng., Friends Mtg. See Alfred R. Justice Records, Historical Soc. of Penna., Phila.

The following account of the descendants of (6-189)Thomas Comly, son of (5-63)Ezra and Hannah, was given Apr. 22, 1947, by Samuel T. Bodine, of Elimsport, Lycoming Co., Pa., almost entirely from Bible records in his possession.

Isaac inherited half of his father's estate in Northumberland Co.

It is not believed that Ezra Comly, father of Rebecca, moved with his family to Northumberland Co., but records show that his sons (6-182)Charles and (6-189)Thomas and his grandson (7-473)Aaron Comly were there the latter part of their lives. It is probable that Rebecca went with them and married Isaac Vincent there.

Isaac Vincent's will, Bk. #4, p. 485, Twp. of Delaware, Northumberland Co., dated 4-2-1843, Pr. 3-11-1856, mentions: son Henry when he comes of age; daughters Rebecca, Hannah and Elizabeth to have good education out of proceeds of farm and mill; children, E. C. Vincent, Nancy Hower, widow of Enoch, Daniel Vincent, Charles Vincent, Caroline Niceley, John Vincent and Hannah Mariah Vincent. Wife Rebecca mentioned in codicil as executrix.

Mrs. Edwin Peake has a letter dated Mar. 12, 1833, written by her g. grandfather, Isaac Vincent to "Mrs. Rebecca Vincent," (his wife) Watsontown, Northumberland Co., inscribed "Dear Rebecca" and mentions each one of the children except Elizabeth and Henry who were not yet born. P. 105. (5-203)JOSEPH COMLY. Notes from a MSS Account of the Journey from "Old Sod," Byberry, to the Black River Country, N.Y., by Joseph Comly to assist in bringing back the family of (5-205)Ezra Comly in the year 1811.

Note: according to (5-204)Isaac Comly's diary, Ezra Comly, his brother, and family arrived back in Phila. (Byberry) 11-28-1811, (5-203)Joseph Comly having gone up to get them. This Account signed by Joseph Comly, 1812, makes no mention of Ezra's family on the return trip but they were undoubtedly there.

Chapter #1—Starting 10-12-1811, from "Old Sod," Byberry, to Blue Mountain.
Chap. #2—Blue Mt. to Trips.
Chap. #3—Trips to Jerico.
Chap. #4—Jerrico to Morgantown.
Chap. #5—Morgantown to Indian River.

When we came near to Thomas Townsend's we found the logs cleared out of the road and the shades of the evening were making visible approaches toward us, we enquired the way and hurried on about ¾ mile when we were once more stopped.....We soon after arrived safe at Ezra Comly's; found them well and were naturally

P. 105. gratified by our safe arrival. 10-23-1811. We had been 12 days on the journey from Old Sod to this place and had traveled according to my reconing 363 miles." (Isaac Comly's account when he went up to visit Ezra—See Comly Genealogy—made it 410 miles and he took 16 days up and 11 days down, but "hitch-hiked" when possible, not having a horse of his own).

Chap. 6—Transactions at Indian River.—Went to Robert Comfort's. Spent evening at Thomas Townsend's. In the morning set off early for Sacketts Harbor, traveled west to Watertown on the bank of the Black River, then N.W. to the Harbor. Arrived at dusk—30 miles—tired. Charles planned to go to Kingston, Canada, but gave it up.

I started for Boonville.....

I called at Jacob Comly's and got dinner. This man (Probably (5-41)Jacob Comly, son of (4-23)Joseph) keeps a distillery for production of Brandy, Whiskey, and Gin and of converting the blessings of a kind Providence with the curses of mankind. I was sorry to find such a man bearing the name of "Comly". He said his brother Henry is in the lumber business at Frankford.

Chap. 7—Transactions at Indian River, etc.—I put off from Booneville for Joseph Child's, then to Ezra's. Went to Uncle Robert Comfort's. At noon Thomas and Betsy came on the oxsled. Went to John Strickland's and returned to Ezra's. Discoursed on the superiority of the Black River Country. Went to Preparative Meeting, about 30 there—returned to Ezra's. Thomas Burton was returning with us to Penna.

Chap. 8—Indian River to Albany. Ezra had returned from Strickland's (his father-in-law) and we were disappointed at the delay in starting. Loading the wagons took us from breakfast till 4 in the afternoon. We made a final start from Indian River Bridge and lodged at Uncle Strickland's where our provisions had been cooked for the journey.

After a deal of fixing we got started, road very bad till we got to the Plains.....rain.....arrived at Champoin a little after dark, having only got 14½ miles this day. Next morning snow on ground and in the air but we

P. 105. pushed on. Sometimes we had to double the teams to draw my wagon up the steep hills but we kept busy and got to Lowville at dusk. 15 miles this day.

Next morning I had my horses shod, and we started between 10 and 11 o'clock, and made better time than yesterday. But the snow was 6 inches deep and we only made 15 miles again.

Next day mud frozen on top but not hard enough to hold. Rain. We took the Johnstown road, hilly but good in places. Went through Salisbury, Conewago, Schenectady. One night the "bed Amos and I were to occupy was short and narrow and withal very thinly clad both above and below us.....

We finally arrived at Albany about 11 O'clock."

Chap. 9—Albany to Katskill. In Albany we had been mistaken for market people and natives tried to buy things. . . Went through "Coeyman's Landing on the North River, Cooksaukey, Lumenburg, Athens with a "Seaport". . . We were now at the end of the Turnpike that would be beneficial to us. We had arrived at Katskill at 2 o'clock.

Chap. 10—Katskill to Goshen. Through Esopus. We crossed Esopus creek in a boat, about 100 yards wide. . . . Passed foot of Blue Mountain again. We descended from Blue Mt. by degrees—arrived at Springton and are now retracing our steps. Passed through Montgomery in the County of same name.

Chap. 11—Goshen to Hackettstown. Through Hamburgh—Arrived at Joseph Strickland's before noon.

Chap. 12—Hackettstown. Through Quakertown, Wrightstown and arrived unannounced at the Mansion of Old Sod and found our relations anxiously awaiting our safe arrival.

Note: They made 37 miles the last day and arrived about dark, making the last part slowly so as to arrive after daylight.

Note: Joseph made a second trip to the Black River Country in 1841, 30 years after his first trip.

From Duck Creek Meeting Records, p. 13 (Historical Soc. of Penna.):

Harry E. Stam, Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1940, wrote that he was working on the Hanson family and contributed additional data. Elizabeth's death is given as 3-20-1775.
